Severe storms and power outages, including floods, hurricanes, and tornadoes, are the leading causes of business interruptions.

Attend this webinar to learn actionable steps you can take today to protect from severe storm interruptions and power loss.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER: ROB SARNO

Rob is a business continuity expert and Senior Account Manager at Agility Recovery. With over a decade of professional experience helping organizations realize their continuity and risk goals, Rob combines his expertise in emergency preparedness and business continuity to advise clients on their resilience, risk, and recovery needs while helping them implement critical risk management solutions.

A native New Englander, Rob is a die-hard Boston sports fan. He holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Oregon and lives in Colorado with his wife, children, and seven pets, including dogs, cats, and a horse. During the fall, he can often be found on any given Sunday on his couch, yelling at his TV.
